SEATTLE, WA 98133-6969

Date of Accreditation: December 15, 2014
IATA Numeric Code: 50-7 3124 0

Dear Travel Professional,

We are very pleased to advise you that IATAN has approved the recent changes to your accreditation business. We have also verified that it continues to meet the IATAN Accreditation Requirements.

We are pleased to enclose in the package:

- Certificate of Accreditation, which has been designed for you to frame as evidence of your commitment to the travel industry.
- Agency Agreement (applicable to airline appointed applicants who changed their legal name only).

In order to request your IATAN Personnel list, which can be required to industry suppliers when granting industry concessions or to process ID Cards for all eligible employees please visit IATAN's Online Services at www.iatan.org.

First time users are required to sign-up in order to obtain a password. After signing-up, IATAN will send you an e-mail containing a link that will activate your account. Once you click on the link, the account will be activated, and you can access IATAN's Online Services.

The IATA/IATAN ID Card is the preferred means by which industry suppliers recognize bona fide travel professionals when granting industry privileges. To be eligible, the applicant must be registered with IATAN, working a minimum of 20 hours per week and earning the minimum of $5,000.00 per annum in salary and/or commissions. Please note owners of record with a 20% interest or more in business are exempt from the earnings requirements.

In closing, we welcome you to IATAN family and urge you to visit www.iatan.org frequently as we often update our programs so that they maintain relevance. Finally, if there is anything that IATAN and its staff can do to assist you with your success; please do not hesitate to call us at 1-877-734-2826.

Sincerely,

Diana Larrañaga
Assistant Director, IATAN Operations
