DISCOVER HOLLAND!

Wooden shoes and windmills. Tulips and tamales. Sand dunes and sculptures. Urban excitement and homespun simplicity. This is Holland. A sophisticated city wrapped up in small-town charm, and only 30 minutes from downtown Grand Rapids!

MARVEL AT THE MILL

Tour DeZwaan windmill, a 260-year-old authentic working Dutch windmill, and learn how the Dutch-certified miller grinds locally grown winter wheat into flour and corn into meal (available for purchase).

HIT THE BEACH

Whether you spread a blanket on the sand and read a book, join in a rousing game of beach volleyball, stroll barefoot at water's edge, picnic with friends along the shore, or build a castle in the sand, Holland offers a great selection of beaches, each with its own unique personality.

FOLLOW THE YELLOW BRICK ROAD

Take your picture with life-size statues of Dorothy and her friends along the yellow brick road! This permanent year-round display pays homage to L. Frank Baum, who wrote parts of The Wonderful Wizard of Oz while staying at his family's cottage, just a few short miles from downtown Holland!

The Art of Visiting Grand Rapids

“What is there to do in Grand Rapids?” is a question I often hear from first-time visitors. Now I have a new answer for them.

I point them to A Grand Ride, a 2019 painting by West Michigan-based artist Joel Schoon-Tanis. We asked Joel to capture the essence of the Grand Rapids travel experience in a painting – and he delivered a vibrant, whimsical piece depicting 20 or so of the area’s most iconic destinations, activities and events.

Think of A Grand Ride as a road map to a quintessential Grand Rapids getaway. Start your journey at ExperienceGR.com/A-Grand-Ride, where we identify the elements of the painting – then browse the rest of our website and this guide for more grand travel ideas that wouldn’t fit onto Joel’s canvas.

A Grand Ride is also a nod to the prominence of our local arts scene – and the global arts competition we host every other year. Mark your calendar for ArtPrize® 2020, Sept. 16 - Oct. 4.

If you last visited us for ArtPrize 2018, you’ll find a bevy of new hotels, restaurants, craft beverage makers and entertainment venues eager to show you a grand time!

Douglas Small, CTA
President and Chief Experience Officer,
Experience Grand Rapids

P.S. Want to bring a piece of Grand Rapids home with you? You can purchase a print or ceramic coaster version of A Grand Ride at ExperienceGR.com/A-Grand-Ride.

Lake Harbor Beach

The Coast is Near. Downtown Grand Rapids is just 30-45 minutes away from the spectacular beaches and charming beach towns of Lake Michigan.

Barks Not Sharks. Dogs are welcome on the beach (and in the shark-free freshwater) at several parks.

City Shore. Millennium Park's swimming beach and splashpad are a five-minute drive from downtown.

Kirk Park

Muskegon Pier

Entrance to State Parks requires a Recreation Passport; non-MI residents may choose instead to pay the daily entrance fee. Details at michigan.gov/dnr.

FLY FORD

Gerald R. Ford International Airport serves more than three million passengers each year. New carriers, more destination options, expanded facilities and enhanced amenities will greet them in 2020.

Service that Soars.

As seen on Twitter:
bit.ly/AnnCurryTweet

A $47 million transformation of the airport terminal has enhanced amenities and reduced wait times.

The GRR mobile app makes it easy to track flights, find parking, navigate the airport and more.
